

AHMADIYYAT THE TRUE ISLAM

الْقُرْآنِ الْمَكْرَمِ

هُوَ الَّذِي بَعَثَ فِي الْأُمِّيِّينَ رَسُولًا مِّنْهُمْ
يَتْلُو عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتِهِ وَيُزَكِّيهِمْ وَيُعَلِّمُهُمُ الْكِتَابَ
وَ الْحِكْمَةَ وَإِن كَانُوا مِن قَبْلُ لَفِي ضَلَالٍ مُّبِينٍ ﴿٣﴾
وَ الْآخَرِينَ مِنْهُمْ لَمَّا يَلْحَقُوا بِهِمْ وَ هُوَ الْعَزِيزُ
الْحَكِيمُ ﴿٤﴾

“He it is who has raised among the unlettered people a messenger from among themselves who recites unto them His Signs, and purifies them, and teaches them the Book and wisdom though before that they were in manifest error; And He will raise him among others of them who havenot yet joined them. He is the Mighty, the Wise.”(The Holy Quran 62:3-4)

Ahadith on Hajj

Abu Hurairah, God be pleased with him, narrates that the Holy Prophet, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, while delivering a sermon, stated: "O people! Allah has made the pilgrimage obligatory upon you. So you should perform it." Hearing this a man asked, 'Is it to be performed every year, O Prophet of Allah?' The Holy Prophet, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, kept silent. The man put his question three times. The Holy Prophet, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, then replied: "If I say 'yes', it would become obligatory, and you would not have the strength for that." He continued, "Do not inquire about something so long as I do not tell you about it. Those before you were destroyed because they asked too many questions but disobeyed the prophets. When I command you to do something, you should perform it to the best of your ability. And if I forbid you to do something, you should abstain from it." (Muslim)

Saying of the promised Messiah

Remember very well that no one shall ever come down from heaven. All our opponents who live today shall die and none from them shall ever see Jesus son of Mary coming down from heaven; then their children that are left after them shall also die and none from among them shall ever see Jesus son of Mary coming down from heaven and then their third generation shall also die and they too shall not see the son of Mary coming down. Then God shall cause great consternation in their minds and they shall then say that the period of the dominance of the cross has also passed away and the way of life has changed completely, yet the son of Mary has not come down. Then in dismay the wise among them shall forsake this belief and three centuries from now shall not have passed when those who await the coming of Jesus son of Mary, whether they be Muslims or Christians, shall relinquish altogether this conception. Then shall prevail only one religion over the whole world and there shall be only one religious Leader. I came only to sow the seed which has been planted by my hand. It shall now grow and flourish and there is none who can hinder it. (Tazkiratush Shaha-datin: Roohani Khaza'in Vol. 20, p. 67)

On 20th October 2018, the World Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, the Fifth Khalifa, His Holiness, Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad inaugurated the Baitus Samad Mosque in Baltimore, USA before delivering the keynote address at a special reception held to mark its opening.

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad said: “Many people fear that a Mosque will provide Muslims with a centre to isolate themselves from the rest of society and to undermine the peace and well-being of the local town or city or even of the nation itself.”

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad continued: “I have personally seen that such fears do exist amongst many people in the non-Muslim world and regrettably such angst and suspicion of Islam and its followers continues to rise. Nevertheless, the truth is, and will always remain, that Islam is completely opposed to all forms of extremism, terrorism or violence.”

the World Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community, the Fifth Khalifa, His Holiness, Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad delivered the keynote address at a special reception held to mark the historic inauguration of the Nasir Hospital, a large-scale humanitarian project of Humanity First, an international charity established by the Ahmadiyya Muslim Community.

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad said: “We seek no praise and no reward for our humanitarian efforts because we are merely doing what our religion has taught us to do.”

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad continued: “In chapter 90, verses 15-17 of the Holy Quran, Muslims are instructed to feed the hungry, to show empathy and love to orphans and to help anyone in need, especially those mired in poverty or who are defenceless and weak. Muslims are taught to be the ones who comfort and love those people who have been failed by society and to carry the weight of their burdens on their own shoulders.”

About the Friday Sermon in Houston, Texas

The Jumu'ah (Friday) prayer is one form of congregational worship in Islam. It takes place every Friday. Regular attendance at the Jumu'ah prayer is enjoined on the believer.

Huzoor (may Allah be his Helper) said that Jalsa environment impress some non Ahmadies and non Muslim Jalsa participants that they took the Ba'it and entered into Ahmadiyyat true Islam. Thus there are innumerable blessings of the Jalsa which are evident and expressed in every Jalsa from all the countries.

The Promised Messiah (as) then says, "it has also been observed that when people are sitting in a (noble) gathering, mostly their hearts are impressed, and they find these things good, but when they go away from the gathering and go back to their friends, their old ways start to prevail again, and they forget all good things they had heard. This is the reason I say that we should continually repeat these things and keep them at the fore so that we are reminded of them lest we forget." So, it is vital to understand the philosophy of right and wrong to be empowered to do the right thing. The Holy Quran gives these details repeatedly. So, read the Holy Quran again and again, and make a written note of all those deeds which have been described as evils and then try to avoid them by the help and grace of Allah. Avoiding evil deeds is the first stage of Taqwa (God-fearing righteousness), then one develops aversion to the sin and progresses on good deeds. This is achieved by the worship of God. But some people go to the mosque to worship and in the same place they criticise and complain about others, they think ill of others and speaking [ill] of them and been dishonest in their trusts. The Promised Messiah (as) states that if one is engulfed in such evils, then their prayer has been of no avail to him. More

The Philosophy of the Teachings of Islam

Introduction

The essay entitled The Philosophy of the Teaching of Islam was written in Urdu by Hadrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, the Promised Messiah and Mahdias at the invitation of Swami Shugan Chandra under whose auspicious the conference of Great Religions was held in Lahore Town Hall from 26th December 1896. The scholars of Muslims, Christians, Arya Samaj and other religions were invited to represent their religions at the following five topics on basis of their Holy Books.

- The Physical, moral and spiritual states of man
- The state of man after death.
- The object of man's life and means of its attainment.
- The operation of the practical ordinances of the Law in this life and the next.
- Sources of Divine knowledge.

Allah revealed to the Promised Messiah that his essay will be declared supreme over essays. And so it was. For instance the Civil and Military Gazette, Lahore, wrote that Hadrat Ahmad's essay was the only one worth mentioning and the only one paper which was commended highly. The essay has been published in several languages in different countries.

It is the best and most comprehensive introduction to Islam within the scope of the above five questions. The book was translated into English by Sir Muhammad Zafarulla Khan.
