The Key to Peace and Harmony

By Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
5th Caliph

Today's Friday sermon was delivered by Khalifatul Masih V (May Allah be his helper) from Baitul Futuh mosque, London. After Tashahud and Surah Fatiha, Huzoor said:

*“Those who spend in prosperity and adversity, and those who suppress anger and pardon men; and Allah loves those who do good”.
(2:135)*

In it, first of all the attention has been drawn toward spending to pay the rights of the needy. The doer of the good is the one who helps others, does noble acts, and observes taqwah. The one who benefits others for Allah's sake and by following taqwah is definitely selfless in giving rights to God's creation. He spends visibly and invisibly to achieve Allah's will and when this condition is created in a human, he doesn't show selfishness, doesn't wish ill for his brother, and such people start spiritual progress and join those whom Allah loves. Then Allah also says that another sign of those who do good is that they control their emotions...such a control that they suppress their anger when it is natural to be angry, and this can be done when a condition to forgive is created after the suppression of anger.
